Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr.,
Wall and Broad Streets,
New York.

Dear Sir:

I have received a letter, under date of January 10th, from Messrs. J. P. Morgan & Co., enclosing check for ten dollars for your dues for the coming year, as a member of this Society.

At the December meeting a proposed revision of the Constitution and By-Laws of this Society was presented, and this will come up for final action at the annual meeting on Monday evening next, January 17th. Among the proposed changes is a provision increasing the annual dues of members to fifteen dollars, if this is approved it will go into effect immediately.

I will advise you of the result after the meeting has taken place.

I sent you a printed copy of the proposed revision, to 8 East 36th Street, I am sending an other copy, under separate cover, to your office.

Very truly yours.

Treasurer.

Dear Mr Vos

Well you have the following typed for me and I read it to you over the phone. I'll come up & sign the letters.

Yours truly

Mr. Wood

the Curator of the American Numismatic Society found the enclosed paper among the mundals &c! which you have on loan and asked me today to consult you about it. There is no such case enclosing two ivory medallion portraits of Mary Stuart and Francis II.

P.S. I wrote to Julius Kalkstein Wiles, 11 Henderson Place near E 86th St., history of this Stolen Coin.

It is not necessary that we should have them but I wanted to call your attention to the fact that we have not these pieces here.

I have dictated a letter to Mr Morgan about the mint bar with Roman stamps,

which will explain
its origin and purpose,
~~and will send it~~
~~to Rome~~ and am sending it under separate cover.

We shall retain the

Dear Miss Greene:-

We are sending out the invitations for the opening of the exhibition of Mr. Morgan's coins, and are sending the following invitations to the members of Mr. Morgan's family:

Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan.
Mrs. Pierpont Morgan.
Miss Anne Morgan
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee.

Will you kindly give me the names of any others who should receive invitations, and of any to whom you would care to have invitations go.

Will you also kindly advise me of Miss Thurston's initials and address in order that an invitation may be sent her.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Miss Belle da C. Greene,
The Morgan Library,
33 East 36th Street,
New York.

Dear Miss Greene:-

I am sending the enclosed acknowledgment to you in order that you may explain, if you will be so good, in bringing it to the attention of Mr. Morgan, that the coins enumerated are the ptolemaic bronze pieces with a very small sprinkling of silver, which you presented to the Society. I am doing this in order that Mr. Morgan may not receive an incorrect impression, as might have been the case had the acknowledgment been sent to him direct without any explanation.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

The Librarian,
American Numismatic Society,
Broadway & 156th Street,
New York City.

Dear Sir,

At Mr. Morgan's request I am sending to you, by express, within a few days, a number of books on Coins and Coinage.

These books had formed part of this Library, but Mr. Morgan feels that they would be more useful if in your care.

If, upon their arrival, you find the books to be duplicates or of no value to you, please dispose of them as you see fit.

Very truly yours,

Belle da Costa Greene

New York.

Dear Miss Green:-

On my return from my vacation I found the second consignment of volumes which you have so generously presented to our Library. Thank you very much. An acknowledgment would have been made out before this had not my absence prevented. We are very glad indeed to have these volumes, and I hope some day to have the opportunity of thanking you personally for the interest which this gift manifests. Will you please present to Mr. Morgan the formal acknowledgment which I enclose.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

Dear Miss Greene:

I am enclosing two copies of a catalogue of medals which I think may interest you or Mr. Junius Morgan.

Mr. A. F. Davies writes us that he has received instructions to dispose of this collection. He states that an expert has recently examined the medals and discovered but eighteen doubtful pieces. He also states that 85 per cent are absolutely authentic. They are held at Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000). The collection can be seen at 60 Avenue du Bois de Boulogne, Paris, by appointment with Mr. H. Lowenfeld.

The address of Mr. A. F. Davies is: 134, Sinclair Road, West Kensington, London, W.

Very truly yours,

Acting Secretary & Curator

November 23rd, 1925

J. Pierpont Morgan, Esq.
231 Madison Avenue
New York City

Dear Mr. Morgan:

In view of your generous contribution toward our Indian Peace Medal Fund, you may be interested to learn that we were very succesful in securing sufficient funds to enable us to purchase every one of the twenty medals which we especially desired.

Our collection of Indian Peace medals is now a truly remarkable gathering, the like of which exists nowhere else in the world. The Society is, therefore, very appreciative of your loyal and generous assistance which has contributed so largely to the fortunate result as outlined above.

Please allow me to add my own personal thanks to those of the Society, and believe me,

Yours very gratefully,

President
